

EXPLORE THE ISSUE OF IMMIGRATION IN FILM AND DISCUSSION

SUNDAY December 13, 2009 1pm

Community Church of NYC, Assembly Hall, 40 East 35th st. @ Park ave

“FARMINGVILLE:”

Produced and Directed by Catherine Tambini and Carlos Sandoval, Camino Bluff Productions Inc. & CatTails LLC. 2004, 78 minutes.

Winner of the Special Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival FARMINGVILLE is a provocative, complex, and emotionally charged look into the ongoing nationwide controversy surrounding a suburban community, its ever-expanding population of undocumented immigrants, and the shocking hate-based attempted murders of two Mexican day laborers.

And a very special guest speaker

FAMILIES FOR FREEDOM

<http://www.familiesforfreedom.org/> Founded in September 2002, FAMILIES FOR FREEDOM is a New York-based multi-ethnic defense network by and for immigrants facing and fighting deportation. We are immigrant prisoners (detainees), former immigrant prisoners, their loved ones, or individuals at risk of deportation. We come from dozens of countries, across continents. FFF seeks to repeal the laws that are tearing apart our homes and neighborhoods; and to build the power of immigrant communities as communities of color, to provide a guiding voice in the growing movement for immigrant rights as human rights.
